Daily Quote...

"[T]he nation's hidden debt – Americans' obligation today as taxpayers – is more than five times the $9.5 trillion they owe on mortgages, car loans, credit cards and other personal debt. This hidden debt equals $473,456 per household, dwarfing the $84,454 each household owes in personal debt. . . . 'The baby boomers and the Greatest Generation are delivering an economic disaster to their children,' says Laurence Kotlikoff, a Boston University economist and co-author of The Coming Generational Storm."
